DONATING SECURITIES TO YOUR PARISH COMMUNITY

A donation of securities is one of the easiest and smartest ways to donate in Canada. When you donate securities to the Archdiocese of Toronto, you put stock in knowing that you are creating the greatest impact on the church and those we serve.

Consider making a gift of securities to your parish or any one of our archdiocesan charities. With a gift of securities, you can receive an immediate donation receipt for the fair market value of the security. In addition, there is no capital gains tax applied to any benefit received from the sale of these securities. Listed securities include stocks, bonds and mutual funds.

To donate listed securities, you can obtain our form, the letter of direction, by visiting this link: <https://bit.ly/GiftofSecurities>. For further information, contact the Development Office at: 416-934-3400 ext. 561/519 or development@archtoronto.org.

Dear Parishioners,

It has been an honour and privilege to be your pastor for these past 8 years.

Precious Blood church is a caring and welcoming community. I witnessed first hand the evangelical and outreach spirit of this amazing community.

June 22-23, 2024 will be my last weekend here at Precious Blood, and I hope to see you all at the Knights of Columbus priest and Altar Server appreciation dinner on the night of June 22 in our church hall. Also, on Sunday, June 23, there will be a Coffee Sunday where I hope to see you all, as well.

I will take up my new appointment as Pastor of Sts. Martha and Mary Parish in Mississauga on June 26, 2024.

Please join me in welcoming Fr. John-Mark Missio, your new Pastor who comes from St. John's Parish in Toronto.

You will all be in my prayers as I continue my mission in my new parish and please keep me in your prayers.

God Bless
Fr. Xavier De Pinto

REMEMBERING THE PARISH IN YOUR WILL

A bequest is a beautiful way to express your faith and your gratitude for a lifetime of blessings! A gift to the parish or any of our diocesan charities in your will creates a lasting legacy that will help the church continue its heritage of service and pastoral care to the faith community. When making your will, please consider a bequest to our parish.

To learn more about making a bequest, please call the parish office or the Development Office of the Archdiocese at 416-934-3411 ext. 519 or visit www.archtoronto.org/development.

DID YOU KNOW?...

The Book of Revelation, the last book of the Bible, is also called the "Apocalypse" in some translations of the Bible.

The word apocalypse comes from the Greek word "apokalyptein" which means "to uncover, to reveal". The book reveals the victory of good over evil, and so, the end of the world, as we know it. For that reason, the word "Apocalypse" has been also used to indicate the end of the world.

Another word, indicating the end times, is "Armageddon". This word has developed from the Hebrew "Har Megiddo", meaning "Mount Megiddo" (a hill located 30 km south-east of Haifa, Israel), which is the place where the battle between good and evil will take place, according to Revelation 16:16.

The vestments worn by the ministers during Mass originated in the late Roman Empire, when the normal clothing of a man was a long tunic tied at the waste (precursor of the alb and cincture) and a large serape-like over garment (precursor of the chasuble).

Garments changed throughout history, but the clergy maintained the use of the original ones during liturgy. In time, significance was attached to each of these garments.

Priests wear the alb, chasuble and the stole. The stole is a narrow band of cloth worn around the neck and hanging down the front. This is the sign of their authority, having its roots in similar pieces worn by roman officials as a sign of their office.

In addition to the priest's vestments, bishops wear a mitre, the pointed hat that symbolizes their office of ruling, similar to a crown.

INTERNATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

September 8-15, 2024

Join the Archdiocese of Toronto Delegation!
